

Profiles

	Barbara	Tanvi	Raymond
Nationality/L1 Age	Switzerland L1 - Swiss German only 40-50s	India/Marathi 20-30s	China Been here for 3 months
Reasons for learning English	Moved to NYC and started her job 3 months ago. Wants to speak with fluency for practical reasons with everyone.	-For Interviews and Jobs especially - Moved to NYC 1 year ago.	To get a job and make a connection with other people. To (possibly) go to school
Job/Studies	Principal of Private school	-Experience as Data analyst for Clinical studies -Currently unemployed -Master's in Pharmacy	Currently Unemployed (I think, not 100%), finance/business
Language Learning Background	-Only L1 is German Swiss. -English not spoken in her region growing up. -Learned English a bit in 5th grade and in grades after. -Knows a bit of Spanish and French	-English in secondary school; -Knows Marathi, Hindi and (at least) some Punjabi to recognize. -English classes here at TH.
Activities you enjoy/find useful	-Speaking opportunities -Discuss interesting topics -Does not enjoy grammar-it scares her!		Playing with his daughter (15 months)
Contact with English and study outside of class	*Birkenbahl method (read German texts, w accompanying English literal translations and audio files -Not presented in exact same order,		Not much but looking to find more

B's Writing (5/6)

I good friend told me that you looking for helpers...

Seems like a job especially made for me.

I really love to share this knowledge with other people.

I really believe that you only can feel like home, when you understand the culture off country you live in.

This helps me to connect to people from other countries.

I am a very sociable + humorous person with helps me to communicate & bring across our culture easily.

I am looking foreward to present myself in a personal meeting.

T's Writing (5/6)

...and I am writting to apply for it.

I was also have the experience of guiding my junior college mates for their next career path.

I have a through knowledge of all the leading feilds in STEM.

...careers any student can choose base on his/her interest.

And I also beleive that it is my duty...

I look forward to hear from you.

I believe I should look for the owner of the wallet and not to keep this money.

B's Writing (5/4)

(About not telling the boss). It will be my fault too, when I don't tell.

R's Writing (5/4)

Because if you lie...you risk jeperdizing not only your own credibility but also your friend's credit.

I once saw a co-worker be asked to help his friend to lie. (by lying for him)?

I stick to the phylosipy that encourage them to take responsibility rather than avoid it.

T's Writing (5/4)

What if I loose my wallet someday and nobody come looking for me?

At first glance I though someone lost their ID's...

...since someone already lost thir money, why not to make a good use of it.

I belive I should look for the owner of the wallet and not to keep this money.

The reason I dont want to keep this money, is because its someone elses hard earn money.

My friend in other hand thinks its not a big deal.

Magda:

"It depends the thing that you've created."