

Complete the text with the correct forms of the adjectives.

Use -er, -est, more, and most to help you.

Santiago is the ¹ _____ (large) city in Chile. It has a population of five million people and it's the ² _____ (busy) city in the country. It has some of the ³ _____ (beautiful) buildings in the world, but in the past it was the ⁴ _____ (polluted) city in Chile. Its streets weren't as ⁵ _____ (clean) as they are today. Nowadays, public transport around the city is much ⁶ _____ (good) and the city center isn't as ⁷ _____ (noisy). Cycling is also a lot ⁸ _____ (popular) these days because there are many new cycle paths and people can use electric bikes.

.....

Compare your city to Santiago.

You can talk about size, population, buildings and streets, traffic and public transportation, etc.

1.
2.
3.
4.

Complete the sentences.

Use the comparative or superlative form of the bold adjective.

1. I've driven many nice cars, but this one is the _____.
 2. Washington D.C. is quite far from here, but Los Angeles is _____.
 3. Today's lecture was interesting, but I think last week's was _____.
 4. I've flown with some bad airlines, but SpeedAir has to be the _____.
 5. I agree the Budapest is beautiful, but in my opinion Prague is _____.
 6. The exhibition is busy today, but yesterday was even _____.
 7. I'm pretty good at tennis, but my friend Alice is _____. Actually, he's probably the _____ in our club.
 8. Peru, Columbia, and Bolivia are big, but Argentina is _____. In fact, it's the second _____ country in South America, after Brazil.
-

Complete the transport facts.

Use comparative or superlative forms of the adjectives. Add "the" or "than" if you need to.

1. _____ (fast) time to visit all the world's countries by public transport is four years and thirty-one days.
2. The world's _____ (long) and _____ (deep) rail tunnel, the Gotthard tunnel in Switzerland, opened in 2016. It is 57 km long and is about 3 km _____ (long) than the Seikan rail tunnel in Japan.
3. The Dover straight between the UK and France is _____ (busy) shipping lane in the world— 500-600 ships a day pass through it.
4. The country with _____ (high) number of train passengers is China, with over seventeen-billion rail journeys per year. This is much _____ (high) India, with eight-billion.

Write sentences using “as ... as ...” and a word from the list.

big, fast, heavy, high

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

.....

Rewrite the statements using “as ... as ...”.

Don't change the meaning.

1. Traveling by car is safer than traveling by motorcycle.

2. Cycling and driving are both dangerous. They have the same number of accidents.

3. JFK Airport is usually more convenient for us than LaGuardia.

4. Usually, the beach is less busy during the week.

5. Going by bus is not quicker than taking the subway.

Complete the sentences.

Use the words in the box and any other words that you need to.

a lot + busy	a bit + interesting	much + cheap	a bit + economical
a little + big	much + popular	a lot + quiet

- The new model is _____ than the old one.
- Booking in advance can be _____ than paying on the day you travel.
- Well, yesterday's lecture was _____ than last weeks, I suppose.
- The station is generally _____ in the early afternoon and _____ when people are traveling to and from work.
- Cycling is generally _____ with young people, especially in college towns.
- Our new car is _____ our old one. There's more room in the back seats.

Complete the text about travel in Indonesia.

Use the comparative or superlative for of the adjectives. Add any other words you need.

¹ _____ (good) way to travel around Indonesia depends on where you are. On major islands, getting around is generally ² _____ (much + easy). Away from tourist areas, it can be ³ _____ (a bit + difficult). Buses are ⁴ _____ (convenient) and popular means of transport. Between tourist areas, the routes are usually ⁵ _____ (a little + direct) and the journey are generally ⁶ _____ (quick). However, prices can be ⁷ _____ (a lot + high) for the slower, local buses. Trains run only in Java and in parts of Sumatra. They're ⁸ _____ (a bit + expensive) the bus but are ⁹ _____ (much + quick) and it's definitely worth paying extra for a ¹⁰ _____ class.